

Planes are currently overbooked. Seats are small and close together. They are already noisy. The addition of intimate and personal phone calls to this already unbearable environment would reduce an already miserable experience to hellish. Please do NOT allow cell phone use on planes.